NICKEL PLATE ARTS FESTIVAL EVENTS

FISHERS, NOBLESVILLE, CICERO, ARCADIA, ATLANTA, TIPTON

Fri July 1

Treetop Outpost Opening

10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Conner Prairie

Included in price of admission
connerprairie.org

Conner Prairie will be opening a new treehouse experience where kids and families will be able to experience nature and interact in new ways. Families will connect with nature and give kids a place to play and discover freely. There's no "one way" to discover or play in Treetop Outpost. It encourages connections and is a place to ignite imaginations. It compels kids to climb while giving them plenty to discover on solid ground. It's open and airy, but it feels like another world. Draw inspiration and share your musical talents in the art and music activity areas.

July First Friday

6 p.m. - 9 p.m.

Nickel Plate Arts campus
FREE!

nickelplatearts.org

Don't melt in the summer heat! Cool off at our July First Friday, the opening reception for Melting Pot, an exhibit exploring Indiana's evolving cultural heritage. Dance to live music provided by local band Indien, "Indiana's only rockabilly swing punk pop rock band." Participate in a hands-on activity inspired by our exhibit, enjoy refreshments, beer and wine, and see what our Studio Artists have been up.

Annie and Rod Capps

7 p.m.

Logan Street Sanctuary,
Noblesville

$12 suggested donation
loganstreetsanctuary.org

Songs about broken things and poignant little ponderings are delivered with a rootsy vibe, a touch of twang and a soulful groove. Annie and Rod are on a musical journey that began in 1982, culminating into a symbiotic sound that reflects their deep and intuitive understanding of each other. Annie's disarming, earthy voice and solid command of her guitar are punctuated by Rod's effortless, accompaniment and beautiful solo work. Together they weave unforgettable melodies that are at once intricate and sparse - musically completing each others' sentences.

Trevor Mather & The NHS Jazz Combo

7 p.m. - 9 p.m.

Noblesville Courthouse Square
FREE!

NoblesvilleMainStreet.org

Trevor Mather is a recent grad of Noblesville High School and brings with him some talented NHS alums and students to share a mix of swing, bebop, ballad, Latin and even a few funk tunes for the crowd. Bring a picnic, kick off your shoes and come listen to some fabulous music!

Melting Pot Exhibit

July 1-30

Wed.-Fri. 12 p.m. - 5 p.m.,

Sat. 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

Nickel Plate Arts campus
FREE!

Who and what from Indiana's past have shaped how we view the world, raise our children and treat others, and how will we as a society shape Indiana culture in the future? During the Melting Pot exhibit, we will attempt to answer these questions and others related to Indiana's evolving cultural heritage through visual and sculptural media. Art by a range of artists will be featured. The exhibit is part of Nickel Plate Arts' year-long Bicentennial focus and is open to the public in the Judge Stone House Gallery. See the exhibition that explores Indiana's evolving cultural heritage through visual and sculptural media.

Ian Fitzgerald is a folk singer and songwriter. Based in New England, Ian has toured throughout the United States. Ian has released four albums of original material and has become known for his storytelling and skillful use of language. Riley Pinkerton was raised in an artistic and musical household which has provided her with a foundation that has supported her since she first began singing, playing, and writing in her early teens.

Lyrical inspired by human behavior, mental processes, and human interactions, Pinkerton catalogues interactions between society and the natural world, and their ensuing consequences. Composing on, and primarily self-accompanied by guitar, she weaves comparative, poetic fictional tales and often cautionary, melodic short story songs, in addition to metaphorical and cathartic pieces.

Sharon O'Connell discovered the hammered and mountain dulcimer at the world's largest dulcimer festival in Michigan years ago. She learned to play and now returns to several festival locations as a performer and instructor. Sharon got her start in Irish music when she attended the world's largest dulcimer festival several years ago, was magnetized by a massive Irish music jam group and has been playing Irish tunes ever since! Her training comes from her own personal study, trading knowledge with other Irish musicians and active involvement in Irish music.

With a master's in education and a love for children, she truly enjoys teaching students from very young to adult and has hammered and mt. dulcimers available for students in her classes.
